

TransEleven Claims Managers Mourns The Loss Of Colleague Stan Lewiecki

TransEleven Claims Managers is deeply saddened to announce the passing of Stan Lewiecki, Senior Claims Counsel. Stan passed away on Saturday evening December 5, 2020. Following an acute foodborne illness in late October, it was discovered that Stan had advanced liver disease. A subsequent hospitalization in mid-November revealed serious kidney problems. He died at home in hospice care, surrounded by his loving family. This news comes as a shock to everyone who knew and worked with him.

Stan was a valued member of the TransEleven family. Well respected in the industry, several TransEleven executives, attorneys and administrative staff had the privilege of working with Stan for over 16 years. As Senior Claims Counsel, he handled claims administration and litigation management in a variety of practice areas. Before joining TransEleven he was a Claims Attorney with TAC (Texas Association of Counties). Prior to his tenure with TAC, he worked for 14 years as Senior Claims Counsel with Professional Claims Managers. Stan was also a trial attorney for Allstate. Stan received his J.D. from the University of Texas School of Law and was a member of the State Bar of Texas.

Beyond his talent and sharp intellect as an attorney, Stan was a kind and giving individual with a huge heart. He was very active in his local church and had a genuine love for people. Above all, Stan was a devoted family man. Our hearts go out to his wife Paige and his daughter Maggie. They were the center of his universe. As a colleague, we will always remember his positive spirit, his infectious laughter and his huge smile.

Due to the Covid-19 health pandemic, the family has chosen to do a virtual memorial service and celebration of life on Saturday, December 12, 2020 at 2pm \(CST\). All who knew and worked with Stan are encouraged to attend. The virtual service will done by Zoom video conference.
